

In My Dreams

I see you there in my dreams; I can see you

And hear you breathe, so real it seems!

I see your smile and feel my bliss...umm I remember

Us feeling happy like this...

(dream) must mean that I still care.

I can even hear your laughter; it's loud and clear; it's

As if you're really here!

I smell a familiar smell; it's your cologne; I know though

I'm by myself I'm not alone. I see you there, in my dreams;

Our interactions are just as they used to be. I miss those times,

But at least in my dreams, there you are here with me.
